NEWS BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

In San Francisco, on the 12th, two disguised men entered the office of the "What Cheer" House, where only one clerk was in charge. They knocked him senseless by a blow on the head, took the key from his pocket, and opened the safe and robbed it of $20,000 in gold. The robbers escaped.

McElroy's dry goods store, in Philadelphia, was robbed of silks, early yesterday morning, to the amount of $10,000.

The 6th Illinois cavalry, in passing through Cairo lately, became extremely disorderly, and treated the negroes with shameful brutality.

The Mississippi House of Representatives has reversed its refusal to allow negro testimony against whites. It has now passed the bill by a vote of 47 to 43.

Two steamers, of rival California lines, will start from New York at the same hour tomorrow. There will be an interesting race between them.

The Jamaica Standard of October 30, speaking of the punishment of the negro rebels in that island, says there is one continual scene of hanging, day by day, and that it becomes a matter for consideration, whether the burial of so many people in the town is not likely to produce some serious epidemic there.

Thomas D'Arcy M'Gee, in a recent speech at Montreal, denounces the leaders of the Fenian movement as interested demagogues.

Highway robberies and burglaries have become so frequent and daring, in St. Louis, lately, as to create general alarm, and the citizens seriously contemplate the formation of a vigilance committee. Two men were killed in an encounter with highway robbers, and people are nightly robbed on the street, and houses broken into by burglars.

The Vicksburg Herald says that Major Gen. Howard does not think the condition of affairs in the Southern States sufficiently promising to justify him in recommending the withdrawal of the Freedmen's Bureau.

The Minister to Mexico.

Only eleven days before General Logan was appointed Minister to Mexico, he said, in a speech made in the Brooklyn Academy of Music:

"So far as I am concerned, I believe that Maximilian, in holding Mexico to-day, is part and parcel of the rebellion against this Government. [Cheers.] * * * That was a part of the rebellion; it is a part of it to-day; and the Government of the United States has only to say to Maximilian, 'Sir, you must pack up your duds and travel.' [Laughter, ending in another tremendous outburst of cheering.] The Government has not suppressed the rebellion until it does this. [That's so.] I, for one, don't propose to give that State to Maximilian. I, for one, am in favor of our Government saying to him, 'You were induced by this rebellion to take possession of that country, and to attempt to establish yourself there; I will not permit you to stay there; you must get out of that country and leave it to its people.' [Cheers.]

It is reported that General Logan's appointment was urged by General Grant.

[An article in the French Napoleonic paper, the Courrier des Etas Unis, published at New York, is important. It characterizes the appointment of General Logan as an insult to Maximilian and France. It sums up quite a list of French causes of grievance upon the Rio Grande, etc., and discredits entirely the statement of the Independence Belge as to the prospect of withdrawal of French troops from Mexico.]

The National Intelligencer has an article objecting to the compulsory enforcement, by military or civil authority, of any form of prayer, in any church; and contends that any body of worshippers ought to be allowed to pray for whom they choose, without interference.

A writer in the Washington Chronicle instances the Dominican Republic as an evidence that the "white and black races can live peacefully together on terms of political equality." Unfortunately, the writer will find in Jamaica, a "per contra."
